I. Topical Outline – Each offering of this course must include the following topics (be sure to include information regarding lab, practicum, clinical or other non-lecture instruction):

The instructor will organize the course material in such a way that the main topics of early Western Civilization will be surveyed in a balanced manner. It is within the prerogative of the instructor to assign the exact amount of time (days, weeks, etc.) to be spent on each of the primary periods and topics involved. Some of the basic topics to be included will be:

1.) Pre-History and developments of the Old Stone Age and New Stone Age (Earliest Times to 3000 B.C.E.)

2.) First civilizations to include Mesopotamia, Egypt, the Hittites, Canaanites, Philistines, Phoenicians, Hebrews, Mycenaeans, and other peoples of the pre-Bronze Age and Bronze Age (3000 B.C.E. to 1200 B.C.E)

3.) The Ancient Greeks from the time of Troy through the Persian and Peloponnesian Wars to Alexander the Great and the Hellenistic Age. This will include the Golden Age of Athens and a wide variety of subjects from political to military, social and cultural history (approximately 1200 B.C.E. to 400 B.C.E).

4.) The rise and fall of the Roman Empire from the early Republic and Etruscan influence through the Punic Wars with Carthage until the collapse and fall to barbarian invaders. From Republic, to Empire to Ruin (700 B.C.E. to 455 B.C.E.)

5.) Judaism, Christianity, Byzantium, and Islam. A close look at the rise and spread of the primary religions of Western Civilization.

6.) The Middle Ages to include final breakdown of the last outpost of Roman civilizations, Feudal Europe (lifestyles, economics, and politics), the Medieval Church (religious orders, politics, society and the Papacy).

7.) The beginnings of secular power to include the rise of royal monarchies in Spain, England, and France; the Crusades against Islam, the fall of Constantinople, early Russian and the influences of Ottoman Turkey.

8.) The Renaissance. Political, social, cultural, and intellectual revival of classical, ancient thought entwined with remarkable innovative thoughts of Europe from the 1300s to 1600.

9.) The Protestant Reformation to include Martin Luther, Zwingli, Calvin, and other rebels and reformers. This period also includes the Catholic Reformation and the bloody ravages of the Thirty Years War from 1618 to 1648 (Time covered will be 1500 to 1648).

10.) Final Review of the advance of Western European Civilization after the collapse of the Roman Empire to religious revival and why the Crusades, Renaissance and Protestant Reformation set the stage for the Age of Discovery and coming collision of the Old and New Worlds in the 1500s and 1600s.

It is within the prerogative of the instructor to cover additional topics.

III. Required Text(s), Optional Text(s) and/or Materials to be Supplied by Student.

- Individual titles selected by the instructor available in library collection. Primary documents may be distributed to students, made available from instructor web site, or placed on reserve in the library.

IV. Suggested Course Maximum - 35

V. List any specific spatial or physical requirements beyond a typical classroom required to teach the course.

Western Civilization I is taught on-line only. Instructor must have access to working computer and all appropriate technology.

VI. Course Requirements/Grading System – Describe any course specific requirements such as research papers or reading assignments and the generalized grading format for the course

The grading scale used for all tests, papers, and projects will be as follows:

- 90% to 100% = A
- 80% to 89% = B
- 70% to 79% = C
- 60% to 69% = D
- Below 59% = F

Instructors may also use a point system to determine final scores as long as this point system is clearly outlined in the instructor’s syllabus.
Writing Project(s) – 25-50%
(may include research papers, exam essays, book/film reviews, and/or response papers)
Exams – 25-75%
(may include quizzes, unit exams, exam essays, and/or oral presentation)
Participation – 0-50%
(may include daily assignments, projects, attendance, and/or class participation)
Departmental Post-test – 10-50%

Professors will use a combination of the above totaling 100% and enumerate the exact breakdown on the student syllabus.

Instructors may use the narrative/lecture method of instruction to impart factual information and to suggest to students the different interpretations of United States history. The narrative method is also useful for setting the stage for class discussions.

Class discussion between students and instructors is encouraged for the purpose of developing in students the ability to speak before others about historical events. Class discussions should arise from the readings that students complete and from points of interest and the interpretation of facts that emerge in class, especially those relevant to students.

Students will be required to complete written work or to prepare oral presentations to further elaborate or explain what has been presented and discussed by the instructor. These requirements are designed to challenge the student to analyze and critique the material presented. The written work may be in the form of essay test topics, book reviews, reports on articles in scholarly journals, or other written assignments as assigned by the instructor. Oral presentations may be designed as debates, informative overviews, or persuasive monologues.

Minimum requirements include the following:
1.) Attend class in accordance with college policy and as stipulated by the instructor.
2.) Complete appropriate reading assignments made by the instructor
3.) Complete appropriate writing assignments based on the readings, classroom presentations and discussion
4.) Complete oral presentations (if assigned by instructor)
5.) Complete appropriate tests (quizzes, major examinations, and a final examination)

Assessment will be conducted using a variety of methods. Objective questions such as multiple-choice, matching, true/false and fill-in-the blank will be used as will subjective questions which may demand narrative identification, lengthy narrative responses, and also critical thinking. Students will be tested on materials presented in class and are expected to develop listening and note-taking skills. The weight, style, and nature of the specific assessment tools is left to the discretion of the individual instructor, but each instructor must place emphasis on the development of writing and critical thinking skills. There will be at least one outside assignment involving a research paper, book report, computer assignment, or such academic activity as the instructor deems important to augment the testing process and to improve reading and writing skills. Balance in testing to accommodate for varied learning styles is the desired goal.

Evaluation of student progress in this course will incorporate the use of a standardized, comprehensive exit examination. This Post-Test will be 25 questions and should be given the same day as the final examination. It may be part of that examination or stand alone as the final examination. The weight of the Post-Test to the student’s course grade and/or the percentage assigned it as part of the final examination will be at the discretion of the instructor. The recommended weight of the Post-Test as part of the course grade is within the 10 to 50% range and all students must complete the exam.
