

ACADEMIC, CAREER, AND TRANSFER ADVISING AT WCJC

YOUR ADVISOR WILL:

- Explain your academic major or pathway, coursework, and help you register for classes.
- Provide you with specific career and transfer information.
- Help you make a college success plan and connect with campus resources.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Recognize your strengths, values, interests and develop manageable goals.
- Take personal responsibility for your success and come prepared to meet with your advisor.
- Regularly check your WCJC email for news and updates from your advisor and the campus community.

YEAR TWO ADVISING SYLLABUS (31-60 CREDITS)

Academic Advising	Career Advising	Transfer Advising
☐ Confirm major with your advisor. ☐ Review unofficial degree evaluation. ☐ Discuss and clarify your career/transfer goals. ☐ Review your account for any holds. ☐ Register for classes each semester. ☐ Apply for graduation.	☐ Complete a mock interview at the Career & Transfer Center. ☐ Review/revise your resume based on job postings. ☐ Apply for an internship or part-time job opportunities. ☐ Explore personal projects to build your resume. ☐ Network with professionals through organizations, activities and work. ☐ Update your resume based on experiences. ☐ Attend a career fair to meet recruiters.	☐ Review transfer degree plans and requirements each semester. ☐ Apply to the university and pay application fee, if applicable. ☐ Send your WCJC transcript to the college or university. ☐ Include your transfer college or university on your FAFSA/TAFSA. ☐ Check your email regularly for information from the university regarding next steps.
Financial Literacy	Student Financial and Career Resources Scan QR codes below
☐ Complete the FAFSA/TAFSA each year. ☐ Search for scholarships, internships and other opportunities. Some transfer universities offer transfer scholarships. Grants generally do not need to be paid back. You will have to pay back loans. ☐ Apply for scholarships. ☐ Apply for internships and work opportunities. ☐ Avoid unnecessary debt.	iGrad for financial wellness information 	WCJC scholarships
	Handshake for information on internships & careers 	Schedule an advising appointment 