

MAJOR PATHWAY COURSE OVERRIDE APPROVAL FORM

Students must consult with a member of the academic advising staff/division office/program director and receive that person's signature prior to being allowed to register for a course outside of their major pathway.

Disclosure:

A WCJC student is allowed to enroll in a course that is not a part of their major pathway. The student accepts all consequences for taking a course that is not part of their major pathway. The consequences include the following:

- Federal Financial Aid, including Veteran's Benefits, can't be awarded for a course that is outside of a major pathway
- Federal Financial Aid Appeal plans are voided and financial aid is forfeited for taking a course outside of a major pathway and approved academic plan
- Courses taken outside of a major pathway will count toward the total number of credits attempted (affecting future financial aid eligibility)
- Courses outside of a major pathway might not count toward graduation requirements
- No refund to students who enroll in courses outside of their major pathway and then seek a refund due to the course being outside of their major pathway
- Courses outside of a major pathway may not transfer to another institution or they may not be a part of the receiving institution's program of study
