Topical Outline: Each offering of this course must include the following topics (be sure to include information regarding lab, practicum, and clinical or other non-lecture instruction).

This course is the continuation of SPAN 1311 and offers an introduction to the Spanish language and South and Central American cultures. This course will allow students to develop all four language skills: reading, speaking, listening and writing along with the cultural background necessary to improve the communication skills of students. The class will be taught as much as possible in Spanish. By the end of the semester, students will be able to understand more complex dialogues and texts and engage in longer conversations on every day topics. Students will know enough words and phrases to understand and communicate with native speakers on a basic level. The followings are the topics will be included in the course (chapters 5-10):

-Specific vocabulary about travel and vacations, months of the year, clothing and shopping, negotiating a price for products and buying products, daily routines, personal hygiene, time expressions, parties and celebrations, personal relationships, health and medical terms.

-Grammar Structure: "Estar" with conditions, present progressive, direct objects nouns, verb to know, indirect objects, demonstrative adjectives and pronouns, reflexive verbs, indefinite words, preterite of "ser" and "ir" comparisons, superlative, pronouns after prepositions, verbs that change meaning in the preterite, imperfect tense, the preterite and the imperfect, constructions with "se" and adverbs.

-Cultural awareness of the following countries: Puerto Rico, Cuba, Perú, Guatemala, Chile, and Costa Rica.
